A LARGE MEETING

The Chamber of Commerce is Now Well Organized

A general meeting of the members of the Chamber of Commerce was held in the new room, Overland hotel building, last evening. Notwithstanding the weather there was a large attendance of the active business men and prominent citizens present.

S. M. Sample, president, presided, and after some practical remarks on the progress of work of the Chamber, announced the selection of the following various standing committees: Commerce—John Sunderland. Manufactures—P. L. Flanagan. Immigration and Lands—R. L. Fulton.

Mines and Mining—Thos. Wren. Statistics, Publication and Library—E. L. Bingham.

Laws and Legislation—E. R. Dodge. Membership and Grievances—J. B. Munroe.

Institutions and Public Improvements—C. E. Clough.

Exhibits—H. J. Thyne.

Reception—R. H. Grimmons.

Forestry and Planting—H. H. Beck.

Irrigation and Water Storage—Dr. W. H. Patterson.

Game and Fish—Capt. W. L. Cox.

County and Municipal Affairs—F. H. Norcross.

Transportation and Railroads—E. H. Prentice.

Stock and Wool Growing—D. C. Wheeler.

Agriculture and Horticulture—Prof. McDowell.

Education—Dr. J. E. Stubbs.

The chairman of each committee will select the other members of their respective committees, and report the same to the Secretary of the Chamber, which will be published hereafter.

The amended by-laws, together with a brief history of the organization, was read by the Secretary and the entire by-laws, after considerable discussion by many members, were unanimously adopted.

The Secretary reported that 209 members had signed the articles of incorporation as charter members, and there was a good prospect of 250 members within the next 30 days. The proposed action of the trustees to rent a limited amount of space in the rooms for such lines of business not conflicting with the legitimate work of the Chamber of Commerce, at reasonable compensation, seemed to meet the approval of the stockholders. Several firms have already applied for space. The renting of wall space for large silk banners for advertisement has met with much success; several Reno and San Francisco firms have already agreed to rent banners at good prices. It is believed by the trustees that a handsome revenue will be obtained from this source and add to the attraction of the room.

Interesting remarks were made by Mr. Dodge, Judge Wren, Mr. Norcross, Mr. Levy, Mr. Beck, Mr. Prentice, Mr. Sain and others.

Quite a good many members paid up their membership fees. The stock certificates will be ready in a few days for delivery to members, in the meantime receipts for membership and dues will be given to all who desire to pay for same.

At the close of the stockholders meeting there was a meeting of the trustees, who resolved to push the work of the Chamber as fast as practical. Plans for furnishing the room arranging shelves for exhibits, renting space for advertisers, etc., were discussed at length and as soon as plans are completed will be made public. It is the purpose of the trustees as soon as the members of the various standing committees have been chosen by the chairman, the matter of publication and printed matter will be taken up in an intelligent manner, and the demand for literature on the resources be met. Every business man and woman, who has not already become a member of the Reno Chamber of Commerce, should do so now and thereby bear a part in the present effort to promote the permanent welfare of Reno, Washoe county and the entire State.

The men selected for trustees and of the standing committees surely are entitled to the confidence of the entire community and they should be faithfully sustained in every way possible to further the interests of new and Greater Nevada.

Mr. Gotwaldt is one of the brightest of local writers and that he will succeed in his new undertaking goes without saying. L. P. A LARGE MEETING

The Chamber of Commerce is Now Well Organized

A general meeting of the members of the Chamber of Commerce was held in the new room, Overland hotel building, last evening. Notwithstanding the weather there was a large attendance of the active business men and prominent citizens present.

S. M. Sample, president, presided, and after some practical remarks on the progress of work of the Chamber, announced the selection of the following various standing committees:

- Commerce—John Sunderland.
- Manufactures—P. L. Flanagan.
- Immigration and Lands—R. L. Fulton.

- Mines and Mining—Thos. Wren.
- Statistics, Publication and Library—E. L. Bingham.

- Laws and Legislation—E. R. Dodge.
- Membership and Grievances—J. B. Munroe.

- Institutions and Public Improvements—C. E. Clough.

- Exhibits—H. J. Thyne.

- Reception—R. H. Grimmons.

- Forestry and Planting—H. H. Beck.

- Irrigation and Water Storage—Dr. W. H. Patterson.

- Game and Fish—Capt. W. L. Cox.

- County and Municipal Affairs—F. H. Norcross.

- Transportation and Railroads—E. H. Prentice.

- Stock and Wool Growing—D. C. Wheeler.

- Agriculture and Horticulture—Prof. McDowell.

- Education—Dr. J. E. Stubbs.

The chairman of each committee will select the other members of their respective committees, and report the same to the Secretary of the Chamber, which will be published hereafter.

The amended by-laws, together with a brief history of the organization, was read by the Secretary and the entire by-laws, after considerable discussion by many members, were unanimously adopted.

The Secretary reported that 209 members had signed the articles of incorporation as charter members, and there was a good prospect of 250 members within the next 30 days. The proposed action of the trustees to rent a limited amount of space in the rooms for such lines of business not conflicting with the legitimate work of the Chamber of Commerce, at reasonable compensation, seemed to meet the approval of the stockholders. Several firms have already applied for space. The renting of wall space for large silk banners for advertisement has met with much success; several Reno and San Francisco firms have already agreed to rent banners at good prices. It is believed by the trustees that a handsome revenue will be obtained from this source and add to the attraction of the room.

Interesting remarks were made by Mr. Dodge, Judge Wren, Mr. Norcross, Mr. Levy, Mr. Beck, Mr. Prentice, Mr. Sain and others.

Quite a good many members paid up their membership fees. The stock certificates will be ready in a few days for delivery to members, in the meantime receipts for membership and dues will be given to all who desire to pay for same.

At the close of the stockholders meeting there was a meeting of the trustees, who resolved to push the work of the Chamber as fast as practical. Plans for furnishing the room arranging shelves for exhibits, renting space for advertisers, etc., were discussed at length and as soon as plans are completed will be made public. It is the purpose of the trustees as soon as the members of the various standing committees have been chosen by the chairman, the matter of publication and printed matter will be taken up in an intelligent manner, and the demand for literature on the resources be met. Every business man and woman, who has not already become a member of the Reno Chamber of Commerce, should do so now and thereby bear a part in the present effort to promote the permanent welfare of Reno, Washoe county and the entire State.

The men selected for trustees and of the standing committees surely are entitled to the confidence of the entire community and they should be faithfully sustained in every way possible to further the interests of new and Greater Nevada.

Rich Strike Reported in Wedekind District

It was stated on the streets last evening that a rich strike had been made in the Kentuck mine, Wedekind district. Ore that goes seventy-five dollars per ton is said to have been encountered and that there is a big body in sight. Mr. Price, one of the managers of the mine, could not be seen last night.

Assessment work has been commenced in the Crevasser mine, same district, and a force of men will be kept at work for some time. This property is showing good values and will be extensively worked as soon as spring opens.

GREAT FUTURE FOR TONOPAH

Carson & Colorado Rail- road to be Extended There Next Year

Last evening's Virginia Report contained the following interesting item concerning railroad extensions to Tonopah:

A gentleman familiar with the situation at Tonopah said this morning that the Carson & Colorado railroad will be extended to Tonopah next year without any reasonable doubt. Interrogated as to the cause of the slow progress made in sinking, he stated that the limit of the capacity of the gasoline hoists in that camp does not exceed sinking deeper than between 400 500 feet, and the latter depth has been reached in one of the shafts. The principal work now in progress is connecting the several shafts with drills on the various levels which has exposed a vast amount of ore.

Steam hoists with a sinking capacity of 1500 feet or more have been ordered, and when installed rapid sinking to determine the depth of the ore bodies will follow. He expressed explicit confidence that the ore will be found to not only extend to great depths, but that it has been demonstrated that so far it has improved both in width and quality as depth was attained, and forecasts a great future for the camp when milling plants are installed on the ground to work the second and third class of ores—of which there is a vast quantity piled up at the shafts. The work of constructing a large milling plant will doubtless begin early.

Heavy Damage Suit Commenced

Frank Golden has brought suit against O. A. Turner, demanding $40,000 damages because of the defendant's alleged failure to carry out a contract by which he bound himself to sell the plaintiff 2500 shares of common and 2500 shares of preferred stock in the Tonopah Mining Company, which owned and operated mines in Nye county, Nevada. The plaintiff states that the price to be paid was $2500, and that he paid $250 down on July 29, 1902, tendering the balance on September 1, 1901, as soon as the stock arrived from Philadelphia. He alleges that the defendant then refused to complete the deal, the value of the stock having advanced to $15 a share for common and $1 a share for preferred.

Making Rapid Progress

Rapid headway is being made in the Overland hotel. The plumbing work has been almost completed as has also the steam heating plant. The hotel will probably be ready to open within the next month. Everything in the building is being done in a most modern manner and Reno will soon be able to boast of two as fine hotels as can be found on the coast—The Overland and the Riverside.

Claims Broker Clark Murdered

A cording to Judge Mack a sensation has come to light on the Com stock which puts to shame some of the most thrilling plots of sensational fiction. ATIMELY SUGGESTION

Now that winter with its bad weather is with us I would advise every family to provide themselves against sudden attacks of coughs and colds by keeping at hand a good cough medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which is the best among the many preparations for these ailments that I have on my shelves," says L. C. Neaville, the well known and popular druggist of Pittsburg, Ind. "I recommend this remedy and I guarantee it to be without an equal for coughs and colds, also as a preventative and cure of croup." American Orientals.

The making of real Oriental rugs is a simple but slow process and although it seems easy, it is so only to Orientals themselves with fingers trained to deft, skillful manipulation and an inherited taste and ability for such work. The looms may be a few trunks of trees and poles bound together in primitive fashion. It is never more than a simple, vertical frame carrying on its upper part a beam containing the warp, which is kept stretched by a pole or rod passing through it. The weavers are generally women and girls of the household. On an average each woman weaves daily a piece 8 to 10 inches long and 27 inches wide.

We have a handsome line of Oriental designed rugs that are American made. Although machine woven they are guaranteed to wear equal to foreign rugs. In design they are identical to the real Oriental.

JOHN H. DENNIS, Editor
DEBTOR AND CREDITOR NATIONS

IS semi-officially stated that Germany has $2,000,000,000 capital invested in the United States and Mexico, $200,000,000 in Central and South America, $1,000,000,000 in Australia, Africa and the far East, and some $250,000,000 in Turkey. Besides this it is said that German investments in the stocks and bonds of various countries amount to $3,000,000,000. Assuming these figures to be approximately correct, they reach the enormous aggregate of $8,250,000,000. Computing the interest on these investments at four per cent, which is probably too low. We find that Germany's income from these sources amounts to $330,000,000 annually.

England and France are creditors in still larger sums. Nearly twenty years ago Mr. Gladstone estimated that England was a creditor nation to the amount of ten billion dollars from which she derived an annual income of not less than five hundred millions. How much of this vast sum was invested in the United States he did not say. Probably he did not know, for it is a very difficult matter to get at anything like exact figures in these international accounts. But it is certain that the British capital invested in America runs into the billions. Nor is there any reason to suppose that the amount is growing smaller.

We hear much grand eloquent talk about the United States having become a great "creditor nation," but there is nothing in the way of authentic records to prove it. The claim seems to rest upon the bald assumption that we ought to be a creditor nation because we sell so much more than we buy. A far more reasonable assumption is that we sell vastly more than we buy, because we are not a creditor, but a debtor in a very large amount, and we take this method of meeting the foreign demands against us.

Doubtless it is true that during the last few years heavy blocks of American securities held in Europe have been taken up and returned to this country, but these securities constitute only a small fraction of the foreign demands which in one way or another we must meet. The great bulk of our liability grows out of investments in American properties, which investments are not in the nature of loans to us, but which constitute demands upon our resources just the same. For example, an Englishman, living in London, buys an American mine. He draws the profits, or such portion of them as he needs to meet his expenses in England. The drain upon us is exactly the same as if he had borrowed money and were paying interest upon it. In many such cases all of the profits are not withdrawn, a portion being reinvested. This simply adds to the burden which we bear for the benefit of capitalists residing abroad. It is believed by those who have investigated the matter that only a very small part of our obligations to other countries, represents money actually brought over here for investment, the great bulk of our liabilities having grown out of a mere reinvestment of the profits drawn from American enterprises by foreigners.

Under such conditions the time may be very far distant when we shall be a creditor nation in fact, even while it may be true that certain American capitalists have invested heavily abroad. As long as we annually sell five or six hundred million dollars worth of goods more than we buy, and at the same time export as much specie as we import, it is idle to talk about our being a creditor nation.

SILVER IN THE MALAY PENINSULA

SILVER continues to decline and referring to this fact Bradstreet, in a recent issue, says that the situation caused by the depreciation in the value of the metal in the Malay peninsula has grown so acute that Mr. Chamberlain has appointed a committee under the chairmanship of Sir David Barbour, the well-known financial expert, to report on the expediency of establishing a gold standard in the Straits settlements and neighboring Malay States. Were it not for the financial changes which have recently been made in Japan and India, it could be affirmed with reasonable certainty that the report of Sir David Barbour's committee would be adverse to any such move. It is perfectly obvious that a gold standard is altogether unsuitable for the local needs of Asiatic countries. The gold standard was introduced into Japan upon the mistaken notion that it would improve the national credit—as if a mere formal adoption of a gold standard would add anything to the resources and debt paying power of a country. In truth the change distressed and injured Japan in various ways.

The suspension of silver coinage in India on public account was not pretended to be in the interest of the three hundred millions of natives, but rather with the idea of increasing their burdens by compelling them to pay their taxes in money of higher valuation. It was intended to protect the East Indian government, and British officials' residence there against loss consequent upon the changing ratio of gold and silver. The welfare of the native population was no more regarded than if they had been three hundred million cattle. The awful suffering caused by this act is well known to every student of the financial question.

So with reference to the British settlements in the Malay peninsula. If the situation has become acute it is merely in respect to the exporting and importing merchants and the money brokers, who may occasionally suffer some inconvenience or loss through the fluctuations of exchange. The common people are not complaining of silver, unless it be upon the score that they cannot get enough of it. But it is the merchants and money sharks, particularly the latter, who control the world's finances, and hence no one may say with assurance what will be done with silver in the Malay peninsula.

Of this, however, we can be certain: Any attempt to introduce the gold standard there, while it may simplify the question of exchange with other countries, will inflict great suffering upon the masses of the people—as it has wherever the experiment has been tried. It will enhance the value of gold and depress the value of silver, thus injuring debtors in all gold standard countries, and silver miners the world over.

MANY of those Republicans who voted and worked for Bryan and silver in 1896 have renewed their former allegiance. They satisfy themselves by assuming that the old issue, in its broader sense, is a dead one, and, so far as its minor aspects are concerned, that Republicans in the silver mining States are just as good silver men as are their Democratic opponents. This befores the minds of many and blinds them to the real principle involved. They lost sight of the political fact that when they give their support to the national Republican party they are strengthening the hands of that party for its continued warfare upon silver mining or any other Western interest.—Utah State Journal.

PRESIDENT JOHN MITCHELL is proving a tough witness before the board of arbitration. His replies to insulting and browbeating questions from the trust attorney are always polite, yet forcible and incisive. As an instance of his ready retort, the attorney after badgering Mr. Mitchell for some time, closed by volunteering the statement that strikers created public sentiment against themselves only too rapidly, he said: "Well, if the public had been voting on it you would have found a considerable majority on the other side."

WHITE men are being held captive by Indians on an island off the coast of Mexico, according to a story from Los Angeles. Evidently there is still work for our youthful Indian fighters even if the police do send them home to their mothers whenever they wander away.

M. CAMBON, the departing French ambassador, has been given a farewell banquet at which Chauncey M. Depew was among those present. He is now entirely reconciled to his early departure.

MRS. ROOSEVELT is having as much fun as the President, for she is busy refurbishing the White House. Meanwhile who can wonder that the President fled to the Mississippi swamps?

NEWS OF THIS STATE

Items Gleaned from our exchanges in this State

A government timber agent will be stationed at Carson beginning the first of the year.

County Treasurer Dalton, who had the misfortune to break his right leg about ten days ago, is getting along nicely, says the Austin Reville.

J. C. March, once an agent of the S. P. Co., this division, a brother-in-law to Tom Giffen, was elected City Justice at Sacramento.

The Grand Jury of Lyon county indicted Adam Borall for the killing of Angela Zari, on the night of November 3rd, and Judge Mack at the trial for November 23rd.

C. B. Ramdell of Battle Mountain and Miss Agnes Thornton of San Francisco were married at the residence of D. W. Wallis, 905 Walter st., San Francisco Wednesday night.

Grass hay is now selling at $20 and $25 per ton in the stack in Smoky valley. The great demand for hay in Tonopah is the cause of the advance in price.

John McCarthy, while intoxicated, fell from the front seat of a stage near Manvel, Lincoln county, on the 24th of October, the wheels passing over him and killing him instantly.

Silver State: Henry Hardin came in Thursday from the Hardin ranch on Quinn river in charge of a drive of 325 head of cattle. And more are on the way here, the firm having sold the entire number to California buyers.

Tuesday night as a freight train was pulling on to the siding at Tonka, just east of Carlin, another freight train came along and crashed into the caboose. The caboose took fire and it and two carloads of lumber and one of merchandise were destroyed. It is also said that the way-bills for thirteen cars of merchandise, consigned to Elko, were also burned.

The taxable property of Storey county shows a decrease of about $103,000, which means a loss in county revenues the coming year of $5700. The decrease would have been greater but for the Butters plant, which is assessed at $30,000. Next year, however, the county will be in better condition, as the new S. P. track will then be in use.

Independent: Last night Constable McCoy received a dispatch from J. Selkirk at Ryndon asking him to look out for a young man about 18 years of age who had stolen a revolver. He kept a lookout for the man and caught him last night as he was about to take a freight train for the west. He pleaded guilty to petty larceny this afternoon and was fined $60 or thirty days in jail. He went to jail under the name of Morris Mattache. Mr. Selkirk came to town last night with a 30-30 Marlin rifle and hunted Mattache. He said he would have followed him to the Philippines but what he would have got his pistol, as he had carried it three years in the Philippines.

Twentieth Century Club Program
The program at the meeting of the Twentieth Century Club to be held this afternoon, will be as follows:
Piano Solo Miss Roufe
Duett, Miss Blanch and Edith Bonham
Some Modern English Painters....
..... Mrs. Louderback
Vocal Solo Miss De Remer

Store is Crowded
The large import order for toys and holiday novelties given by the Reno Department Store early last spring, are now being received and unpacked, crowding the store to its utmost capacity. It begins to look already like Santa Claus Land. They have a big surprise in store for the children. Watch for it. 2t

Hack Fares to be Increased
Beginning today hack fares will be the same for day service as they have been for night service, fifty cents per passenger. This had to be done owing to the increased price of hay and grain. This order will take effect immediately. N20w2

A Paper With Two Names
The Winnemucca Silver State arrived at this office last night in a rather mixed up condition. On the first page it stated that its name was the Silver State while on the other pages it stated that the paper was the Winnemucca Republican.

Heavy Freight Traffic
Freight traffic at the present time on the Southern Pacific is the heaviest of any time in the history of the company. The local yard is daily jammed with big trains and it takes quite a bit of ingenuity to keep the tracks clear.

THE LEADING INDUSTRY

Mining News of Nevada Told by the State Exchanges

Since the laying of the pipe line into Tonopah water will now cost consumers at the rate of about one cent per gallon.

Negotiations are in progress for the sale of the Ploche Con. group of mines in Lincoln county. The purchase price is $1,000,000.

Elko Independent: Work at the oil well is progressing finely. A new hole is being drilled and preparations are being made to continue operations during the winter months.

A Philadelphia syndicate of oil men has a representative in Nevada looking for favorable ground upon which to begin boring. So far they have not found just what they want.

It is believed that a branch railroad to Silver Peak and Tonopah from the main line of the Carson & Colorado, will be the result of the visit of John Hayes Hammond to those camps.

In the California State mining bureau museum there is a cap and post from the Comstock, where it had been submerged for thirty years, which shows gold deposited in the joints and pores of the timbers.

Elko Free Press: Supt. Willis of the La Monte Oil Company, is putting up a cabin on each claim owned by the corporation. There are 22 claims and the work necessitates a considerable outlay of money.

Winnemucca Republican. Mr. M. C. Diehl of this city took a trip to Unionville Saturday, where he gave employment to two miners. On his return home yesterday he reported everything in that vicinity looking fine and prosperous.

Dispatch: There are $1000 worth of iron rails at the depot for the Cabin No. 2 mine at Olinghouse. They were purchased at Reno from the N-C-O railroad. They are heavy rails but the amount of work blocked out on the Cabin No. 2 requires them. The mere development work in this rich property as now outlined will take several years.

Dispatch: W. C. Williams, the mining baron, of Olinghouse, is in it to stay. His mine has produced about $30,000, but the end is not yet, it promises to produce into the millions. It is all free gold. The other day he struck it some more. The ore is speckled with large grains of gold. The surface of the claim has hardly been scratched. It is a wonderful mine.

Salt Lake Herald. W. R. Ridge, president of the Gold Mountain Consolidated company, operating property in the new camp of Gold Mountain, five miles south of Tonopah, came in from the west yesterday on his way to New York. He expects to stop over in Salt Lake several days. He says the new camp is destined to prove a strong rival of the old one, where over 400 miners are now steadily employed.

Ploche Record: The Manhattan company have ordered a gasoline hoist which is to be placed on the Telephone claim east of town, and a whim for one of their claims at Stumpede Gap. It is the intention of the company to push work this winter as rapidly as possible. Lumber for the gallow frame, and also lumber for building purposes has been ordered by Manager Prudential and the work of putting the same up will be rushed as fast as possible. This insures work here all winter for quite a number, and with the resumption of work in one or two other mines here, which at present seems most probable, and the taking up of the bond on the Mendha, upon which one payment has been made all portends better times for Ploche.

Hot noon lunches at the J. J. Becker Saloon.

CONFESSIONS OF A PRIEST
Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters, and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney troubles, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by S. J. Hodgkinson. Only 50c.

Steamboat Mining Property Bonded

James Burke of Steamboat has bonded to C. M. Sain 80 acres of land adjoining the property of J. W. Hopkins' mine at Steamboat. The bond calls for a payment of $100,000 within one year. Fifty thousand of which is to be paid at the end of six months and the balance at the end of the year. The land is to be prospected for minerals and work will probably commence at once.

Stock Shipments Made Yesterday

There has been considerable doing in the stock shipping line for the past day or two. Last night thirty cars of prime cattle were dispatched to Horn & Co., San Francisco, and two cars of sheep were consigned to Casselotte & Co., San Francisco. Thirty cars of cattle are expected in from the east this morning and they will be unloaded, tested and fed here. Twelve cars of cattle are due to arrive from the north this morning. They will be shipped to Kinser & Co., San Francisco.

Has Finished the Season's Run

Sam Longabaugh, who is transacting a general fluming business at Ophir, in Washoe valley, has finished the season's run. Sunday saw the windup of the work and the flume was hung up for the winter. About 4000 cords of wood were flumed this year, and Sam is a little disappointed that he failed to get out the other 500 that he has cut and ready to run. The storm of last week left about twenty inches of snow on the flat where his camp is situated, and the storm of Sunday added several inches to the accumulation. This is the cause of the shut down. Sam had a hard fight to make to go with the country that had to be worked over, but he has made a success of it, and next year will see a big pile of wood on the dump by the time the snow flies.

Help the Orphans Relief Fund Benefit

The Rebekah Lodge No. 7, largely through their efforts will try and add to the building fund of the I. O. O. F. Orphan Home of Nevada with the aid of the Reno talent present on Monday November 24, the ever popular comic opera "La Mascotte" under the management of Wiley and Smith, two gentlemen who are fully capable of producing and giving an enjoyable production. And in response to this appeal, the citizens of Reno will undoubtedly crowd the opera house on the evening of the performance. The Orphan Home is an institution that should have the support of all. AETNA MINERAL WATER

(Bottled at Aetna Springs, Napa Co. Cal.)

There are so many kinds of mineral waters on the market, and all claiming to possess healthful properties, that it is difficult for a person to make a choice.

When we consider, however, that AETNA has stood in the front rank for years, has been a favorite in households as well as public resorts, and has been recommended by eminent physicians, who use it themselves and prescribe it for patients, there should be no question in the matter of selection.

The Wisdom of Experience

Has taught us the folly of advertising a $15.00 suit for $7.95. We have never been able to find such bargains and we don't think you can. Our $15.00 suit is $15.00 and if you don't think it is worth it when you have compared it with others, or if you have any fault to find with the wear we will do whatever you say.

The particular subject of this talk is a pure worsted fabric of the undressed variety, cut to fit the form and made and trimmed inside and out in a superior manner.

The canvas and stay, though out of sight, are not made of bagging, but a good quality of linen crash, which helps to sustain our reputation. We stand behind this advertisement in every particular.
